

2015 SCF Spring Field Day

Stirlings to Coast Farmers invite you to join them for their 2015 Spring Field Day on Thursday 17 September 2015 starting from Green Range Country Club at 8:15am.

Keynote Presentation

Bill Crabtree: 'The need for evidence based decision making on new GM Technology.'

Included in the Field Tour

Trials and the implications for crop agronomy and plant protection

- Management of Canola foliar diseases inc. Sclerotinia responses (Craig White and Jake McGuire)
- Broad scale barley variety trial and applied fungicide strategies (Jake McGuire, John Howard and John Blake)
- NVT's - Cereals and canola (plant breeders and Brent Pritchard)

• Grain

Trials and the implications for management of soils in this region

- Management of soil constraints (Jeremy Lemon)
- Demonstrated trial responses to management of soil compaction and other constraints (Jeremy Lemon)
- Claying in non wetting soils and response to fertilizers in crop rotations (Keith Gundill)
- Managing soil acidity and paddock pH prescription maps (Wes Lefroy)

Trials and the implications for pastures and our Sheep Enterprise Feedbase.

- Use of pasture mixes and MLA/Landmark trials on precision sowing of small seeds (Paul Omedei and Peter Diprose)
- Do we need modify conventional tyne seeders? (Mick Durant & John Blake)

Then prior to Sundowner at the Green Range Country Club

KEYNOTE PRESENTATION

Bill Crabtree

Please R.S.V.P.

by email to

eo@stirlingstocoastfarmers.org

by text to

0429 965 480

Full details available soon.

