

Department of Agriculture and Food

Agribusiness Sheep Updates 2016

‘Sharpening the WA Sheep Business’

The Department of Agriculture and Food, Western Australia invites you to join us at the Agribusiness Sheep Updates 2016 – an event not to be missed!

This year’s focus is on ‘Sharpening the WA Sheep Business’, with a range of successful agribusiness managers sharing their experiences that led to significant business success.

Keynote speakers include:

- Mick Keogh, Executive Director, Australian Farm Institute
 - Predictions for the sheep industry
- David Cornish, Cornish Consulting
 - Managing risk through investment diversification
- Michael Chilvers, 2012 Nuffield Scholarship winner
 - How to efficiently transition from a family farming business to a diversified agricultural business.

Other guest speakers will present on topics such as ‘the profitability of sheep enterprises compared to cropping enterprises’ and ‘the price benchmarks for out-of-season lambs’.

Industry leaders will discuss the latest economic research, issues and trends and explore the exciting future ahead for the Western Australian sheep industry.

Date: Tuesday 30 August 2016

Venue: UWA Club, Crawley Perth

Registrations open now!

agric.wa.gov.au/sheepupdates

Agribusiness Sheep Updates are made possible by DAFWA’s Sheep Industry Business Innovation project, funded by Royalties for Regions

ROYALTIES FOR REGIONS

Supporting your success