

a s h e e p

Esperance

Spring Field Day

- Thursday 22nd September 2016 -

This is a one day event with a bus leaving from & returning to Esperance.

- 8.00am Bus departs from Esperance Bay Yacht Club carpark
- 9:30am Simon Stead, Beltana Rd: Esperance Rural Supplies Pasture variety trial including varieties of vetch, serradella, lucerne, clover, rye grass and chicory with various fertiliser & herbicide treatments
- 12pm Scott Welke, Beltana & Cascade Rd: Regenerating Santorini Serradella, Santorini Serradella seed crop, N strips following legume pasture.
- Lunch at Scott Welke's shearing shed with presentation from Alosca to follow
- 3pm Landmark Messina Trial, Dempster Rd: Messina is a newly released salt tolerant pasture legume.
- 4pm John Wallace, Plowmans Rd: Sub-clover reestablishment on clayed and spaded country. Dr Jane Quinn from Charles Sturt Uni on Biserulla and photosensitivity.
- 6pm Dinner & Refreshments, Gibson Soak: Dinner will be at the Gibson Soak with the bus returned to Esperance by 8pm.

$10 for morning tea & lunch

Dinner options are chicken parmi for $25 or steak for $33.

Registration essential to Jan Clawson on 0407 990 497 or janclawson@bigpond.com

