

THE UNIVERSITY OF
WESTERN AUSTRALIA

The UWA Institute of Agriculture

Industry Forum 2019

Thursday, 25 July 2019
UWA University Club
Public event | All welcome

Finding Common Ground: Bringing food, fibre and ethics to the same table

With increasing public scrutiny of agricultural practices in food and fibre production, rebuilding trust between innovative primary producers and ethically informed consumers is becoming more important than ever before. Join us for a lively discussion on finding common ground and moving forward together.

Official Opening

Professor Robyn Owens, Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research), UWA

Keynote Address: The Ethics of the Dinner Table

Historical & contemporary issues in the ethics of agriculture

Dr Nin Kirkham, Discipline Chair of Philosophy, UWA

The right to farm vs the right to choose: society is having the final say

Ms Deanna Lush, Managing Director, AgCommunicators and Australian Farm Institute 2018 John Ralph Essay Award Winner

The Animal Welfare Collaborative: sharing knowledge, leading change

Professor Alan Tilbrook, Centre for Animal Science, Queensland Alliance for Agriculture and Food Innovation, The University of Queensland

Case Study: Austral Fisheries

Mr David Carter, CEO, Austral Fisheries

Transparency, trust, and social media: a challenging forum

Ms Bindi Murray, Sheep Farmer, Woodanilling, WA

Panel Discussion and Summation

Facilitated by Professor Fiona Haslam-McKenzie, Co-leader Centre for Regional Development, School of Agriculture and Environment, UWA

Event Details:

Date: Thursday, 25 July 2019

Time: 1.30pm Registration and refreshments
2.00pm Event start
5.00pm - 6.30pm Sundowner

Venue: The University Club of WA, Auditorium

Cost: Free but registration essential

Register: Online by Thursday, 18 July or until fully booked
(registration link will be made available soon)

Contact: 6488 4717 | ioa@uwa.edu.au

Supported by CSBP and Farmers
Ltd Golden Jubilee of Agriculture
Science Fellowship