

Western Beef Proudly presents:

The Hay and Silage Gourmet

Growing, making, buying, allocating and supplementing hay and silage

The "Menu" will feature:

Spring Outlook, Weather Forecast Tools and Long-term Climate Trends

Ian Foster, DPIRD Climatologist

Getting the Pasture Ready and Cost Effective Fodder Conservation Decisions

Dan Parnell, Agsure Consulting

Paddock to Through— Field Decisions to Achieve the Best Fodder Conservation!

Dario Nampadi, Smart Cow Consulting

Buying and Feeding Roughage— Make the Most of Each Cent

Jeisane Accioly, ALIS Consulting

And More:

- ◆ Inspect hay and silage paddocks and discuss practicalities with presenters.
- ◆ Have your say about future livestock R&D
- ◆ Updates on South West Pastures Soil Constraints and Fertiliser Projects

When: Wednesday 28 August

Time: 10 am - 5pm

Where: Vasse

Cost: $20 per person (Cash or cheque, card facilities not available)

Registration includes lunch, morning and afternoon tea and notes.

Registration essential

RSVP Mon 26 Aug

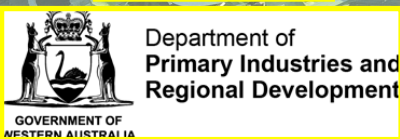

To register contact Jeisane Accioly on:
Jeisane.alis@gmail.com

or 0403 327 216

Supporting partners:

Gold Sponsors:

Silver Sponsor:

Bronze Sponsors:

This event is supported by South West Catchments Council, through funding from the Australian Government's National Landcare Program.