

natural resource management program

Master Class in Saltland Management for WA

10-11 OCTOBER 2019

Highly Interactive and Entertaining
1.5 Day Workshop

www.gillamii.org.au

Skills development in the latest knowledge and technology in saltland management and extension.

Internationally recognised researchers including:

- Dr Ed Barrett-Lennard, DPIRD – Agronomy and Water Use
- Dr Hayley Norman, CSIRO – Livestock Production and Utilisation
- John Young, Farming Systems Analysis – Economics and Whole Farm Analysis
- John Simons, DPIRD – Hydrologist

WORKSHOP INCLUDES

- Farmer knowledge and site visits
- Group challenge on a real site
- Saltland Genie App and Website
- Access to key resources, including: reference material, publications and equipment for on-site assessment and decision making
- Fully catered
- Dinner with guest speaker
- Accommodation available
- Opportunity to run your own organisation's workshop locally!

This project is supported by funding from the Western Australian Government's State NRM Program, DPIRD and CSIRO

natural resource management program

Department of Primary Industries and Regional Development

FURTHER DETAILS AND AGENDA TO COME!

To secure your place or to find out more, please contact Freya Spencer (Gillamii Centre) on 0437 248 206 or email admin@gillamii.org.au

RSVP: 16 September 2019

PO Box 9,
Cranbrook WA 6321

0437 248 206
0898 261 234

admin@gillamii.org.au
www.gillamii.org.au